Spotlight Speaker

Thomas Green, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor

Dr. Green is a member of the Center for Addiction Research and the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology. He studies the molecular determinants of addiction-, depression-, and anxiety-related behavior.

What is the new format for the NIH biosketch?
What do reviewers look for in the biosketch?
How do I write a strong personal statement?

“Students and Fellows will learn about the new NIH biosketch format and how they can best highlight their accomplishments and future goals.”
