Responsibilities of Teachers and Students in the School of Medicine

Teacher Rights and Responsibilities

- to create an educationally supportive environment for students
- to treat learners with respect and to be treated with respect by learners
- to appropriately supervise learners in the educational setting
- to evaluate and provide feedback to learners in a fair and impartial manner
- to submit grades and narrative evaluations in a timely manner

Student Rights and Responsibilities

- to approach education with a dedication that is consistent with the medical profession
- to treat teachers with respect and to be treated with respect by teachers
- to maintain the confidentiality of patient information
- to provide feedback to courses and teachers about their perceptions of the educational environment